This information can be obtained by contacting Maryland Department of Assessment and Taxation at 410-819-5920 or on their web site at <http://www.dat.state.md.us>. All structures and piers must be staked when application is submitted to this office. However, a decision on a Special Exception shall be decided upon the basis of the evidence of record.

Recommendation of Planning Commission: Before deciding any application for a Special Exception the Board of Appeals shall seek the recommendation of the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission shall concern itself with the necessary findings when formulating its recommendations for a Special Exception. The recommendation shall be considered by the Board of Appeals, and shall become a part of the record but shall not be binding upon the Board of Appeals. The Board of Appeals may request from the Department of Planning and Zoning or Planning Commission such technical service, data, or factual evidence as will further assist the Board of Appeals in reaching decisions.

Modification of a Special Exception: The enlargement or alteration of a use or of the structure and facilities occupied by a use, which was previously allowed by a Special Exception approval, shall require a Special Exception use amendment. Such an amendment shall be reviewed following the same procedures required for a Special Exception as listed above except that the Planning Officer may approve the amendment if the amendment is determined to be minor as defined in § 190-56.3.

No amendment shall be considered which does not involve the enlargement or alteration of a use, or of the structures and facilities occupied by a use, except on the grounds of new evidence or proof of change of conditions.

Expiration of a Special Exception: A Special Exception shall lapse and become null and void (18) eighteen months following the date on which it was approved, unless prior to the expiration date, construction is commenced and diligently pursued toward completion, or unless the use for which the permit was granted is commenced within (18) eighteen months, or unless an application for renewal (for (18) eighteen months only) is granted by the Board of Appeals prior to the expiration date. The permit shall remain in effect so long as the use for which it was issued remains in operation.

A Special Exception use that has been in continuous operation shall be transferable, without formal or written confirmation to subsequent owners of a property, provided that there is no significant change in the character of the site or of the use. Any conditions attached to the approval shall continue to be binding by subsequent owners of the site.
