27 enacted thereunder;
- 28 b. The Constitution of the State of Maryland or any State laws or regulations 29 enacted thereunder; or,

30 c. The County Charter.

31 § 94-3. Necessary party

32 Talbot County, Maryland in its corporate capacity shall be a necessary party in all 33 proceedings to which this article applies.

34 (1) All stages. The County shall be entitled to participate as a party represented by the 35 Office of Law in all stages of any proceeding before any County representative involving 36 any claim to which this article applies, including all administrative, quasi-judicial, or 37 judicial reviews or appeals therefrom.

38 (2) Joinder and service. A person asserting a claim in a proceeding to which this article
39 applies shall formally name the County as a party in any such proceeding and shall 40 provide written notice and service upon the County in accordance with the requirements

45 with the requirements of this section.

46 (1) The Notice of Claim shall be filed in the proceeding and served with any application,

62 (5) Any proceeding to which this article applies, but as to which the person asserting a claim
63 has failed to comply with the requirements of this article, shall be void and of no force or 64 effect as to any claim by the person against the County or County representative.

65 § 94-5. Exhaustion required

66 A person shall exhaust available administrative remedies and assert such claim in compliance

72 conjunctive shall also be taken in the disjunctive and vice versa; and the use of any tense of 73 any verb shall be considered also to include with its meaning all other tenses of the verb so
74 used. “Shall” is mandatory; “may” is permissive. “Herein,” “hereby,” “hereunder,” 75 “hereof,” “hereinbefore,” “hereinafter” and other equivalent words refer to this article and

76 not solely to the particular portion thereof in which any such word is used. Wherever the 78 be followed by the words “without limitation.” The phrases “relates to,” “arises from,”

81 factually connect(s) any proceeding, ordinance, rule, regulation, decision, act, or failure to act
82 by the County or a County representative to any claim subject to this article.

SECTION TWO: BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that the title and a summary of this Bill shall be published once on the first publication date after enactment of the Bill in accordance with County Charter § 213 (c). The title is not a substantive part of this Bill. If the Bill is amended, the title may be administratively revised if required to conform the title to the content of the Bill as finally enacted.

SECTION THREE: AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that if any provision of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid for any reason in a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or any other application of this Ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and for this purpose the provisions of this Ordinance are declared severable.

SECTION FOUR: AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that the Publishers of the Talbot County Code or the Talbot County Office of Law, in consultation with and subject to the approval of the County Manager, shall make non-substantive corrections to codification, style, capitalization, punctuation, grammar, spelling, and any internal or external reference or citation to the Code that is incorrect or obsolete, with no further action required by the County Council. All such corrections shall be adequately referenced and described in an editor's note following the section affected.

SECTION FIVE: AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, this article shall apply both prospectively and retroactively to all proceedings, as defined herein, including all public hearings by a County representative held before passage of this ordinance, except to the extent such application or operation would impair vested rights. It shall also apply to all stages of all pending proceedings, including all stages of any administrative or judicial appeals currently in litigation. For purposes of applying this ordinance, a proceeding is not final, regardless of whether the public hearing has or has not been held, until all administrative and judicial appeals have been exhausted or waived, and the matter has been finally concluded.

SECTION SIX; AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to modify or amend any requirements established by the Local Government Tort Claims Act, Courts Article § 5-301, et.seq. as amended or modified from time to time. This ordinance shall be construed as consistent with and complementary to all such requirements.
