3	outreach to the utility companies, as I've	3	failure to pay rent, evictions cases are going
4	mentioned.	4	to begin to be scheduled.
5	And we've started a collaboration with	5	MR. HOLLIS: I need you to get closer to
6	both Midshore Pro Bono and Maryland Legal Aid	6	the mike.
7	that you'll hear from tonight. They each have	7	MS. BITTER: Sorry. Again, so when
8	the application, the verification forms, the	8	Ms. Webb said that the first hearings will be

12	for those dollars.	12	are evictions that can be happening. They can
13	So unless there are any questions for me,	13	be processing the warrant that was issued
14	I will turn it over to the legal specialists.	14	before the stay, but they can also be kind of 15	MR. PACK: Ms. Bitter, good to see you.	15	holding over complaints where the lease has 16	MS. WEBB: Okay. I will then introduce I	16	expired and breach of lease complaints where
17	think Sandy Brown from Midshore Pro Bono is	17	there's some sort of violation, whether it's a
18	here and Rachel Wolpert Bitter from Maryland	18	rent violation or some other violation of the
19	Legal Aid. Thank you.	19	lease, those sorts of evictions can happen
20	MR. PACK: Thank you.	20	right now.
21	MR. HOLLIS: So Rachel, be aggressive with	21	So Maryland Legal Aid, again, was

2	SPEAKER: Can we get another chair?	2	recognized that not just financial assistance
3	MS. BITTER: Good evening. As was said,	3	needs to be provided, but legal support and
4	my name is Rachel Wolpert Bitter, and I am the	4	assistance, because folks aren't just paying
5	supervising attorney for the Maryland Legal Aid	5	bills. There are other consequences that are
6	office, which is here in Easton. But we serve	6	going to flow from their loss of income and
7	the upper shore, but Talbot is one of our	7	being impacted by COVID.
8	counties obviously.	8	And so Maryland Legal Aid has developed a
9	Maryland Legal Aid provides civil legal	9	program where we will not just have our normal
10	services throughout the state of Maryland on a	10	intake in our office, whether it's in person or
11	whole range of issues, but I mean the sort of	11	on the phone, available to folks, but we are
12	reason that we're here today and partnering	12	going to be in the District Court House on
13	with the county is because we were contacted	13	Thursdays for the afternoon docket, which is
14	because of all the work that we do sort of	14	where the landlord tenant cases are heard, to
15	throughout the year in regards to housing,	15	take folks through intake and assist or 16	avoiding eviction, and working with folks who	16	represent folks as they're responding to this.
17	have either applied for public benefits and	17	Because I mean I think we all understand
18	been denied or have sort of issues with public	18	the seriousness of the COVID-19 virus, but
19	benefits and consumer debt collection issues.	19	adding a threat of homelessness and eviction on
20	So obviously as Ms. Webb explained, we are	20	top of that is catastrophic. And the fact that so obviously as ivis. Webs explained, we are		··· F
21	now in a situation where folks who have been	21	these were put on hold for many months, but

1	those holds are now gone. So there needs to be	1	documents, do you cover the filing fees as
2	more than there needs to be legal support	2	well?
3	and legal information to those folks who are	3	MS. BITTER: So in State Court, we would
4	directly impacted. And Maryland Legal Aid is	4	request a waiver. But if it's not granted,
5	happy that the county has recognized that and	5	which honestly I don't think I've ever had that
6	we were contacted and working with all of the	6	happen because if I represent to the court, I
7	partners in the community to provide those	7	represent this person, they are eligible for
8	services.	8	Maryland Legal Services Corporation legal
9	The other issues that we obviously know	9	services, it's written into the rules of the 10	that are coming are debt collection. And so	10	Maryland courts that that person's fees are 11	while it's not as catastrophic as an eviction,	11	waived.
12	certainly having to deal with these sorts of	12	But for bankruptcies, which is a federal
13	barriers and judgments and having folks having	13	system, right, so well, we either apply for
14	to rebuild and move forward once hopefully this	14	a waiver for the person or they may have to
15	crisis is resolved, if we can work with folks	15	pay, and sometimes they pay in installments.
16	so that they understand what their rights are	16	MR. PACK: Thank you. Any questions?
17	and work out these processes before folks have	17	Okay.
18	judgment upon judgment sort of just piled up	18	Ms. Brown, how are you?
19	just waiting for them whenever everyone is back	19	MS. BROWN: Hi. So I'm pressing this?
20	to normal. That's another service that	20	I'm Sandy Brown. I'm the executive director of
21	Maryland Legal Aid and other partners in the	21	Mid-Shore Pro Bono. We are a 501(c)(3)

6	stamps or unemployment insurance, sort of	6	And thank you very much for inviting us
7	helping folks understand what their rights are	7	tonight. I have with us our managing attorney,
8	there.	8	Ms. Meredith Lathbury Girard, who is going to
9	So all of those pieces are going to be in	9	talk a little bit about the front lines of what
10	Maryland Legal Aid's provisions.	10	the work we've been seeing since March 12th
11	MR. PACK: So Ms. Bitter, are your fees	11	when we went remote.
12	prorated for those individuals in the	12	But mostly I want to just say to everybody
13	community?	13	here thank you for the opportunity to serve
14	MS. BITTER: So Maryland Legal Aid, the	14	clients in need because we know there will be a
15	way our funding works is that if someone is	15	great need for legal services. And I am
16	eligible for our services, there are no fees	16	personally grateful to the leadership here of
17	because we are an independent law firm. And so	17	the county recognizing legal services as 18	our staff is paid by the funders. And so we do	18	essential. We know that the governor did, and
19	not have our clients do not pay us.	19	we were grateful to the governor when he
20	MR. PACK: Even the filing, the court	20	recognized our services as essential.
21	filing for the bankruptcies and other court	21	And we've been providing these services

3	what we do. And we do this every single day.	3	Since March 12th, Mid-Shore Pro Bono has
4	We provide access to the legal system and legal	4	received over 900 requests for legal services,
5	services and direct representation and	5	and about 20 percent of those inquiries came
6	counseling to people who cannot afford legal	6	from Talbot County residents. So just by those
7	help.	7	numbers alone, things are really busy. They've
8	Legal Aid does the same thing. We work	8	not really slowed down.
9	collaboratively. This is a great opportunity	9	On the ground, we are seeing a whole range
10	for us to really husband people in together to	10	of legal issues emerging, particularly the need
11	work and have a very clear, concise message,	11	for family law assistance as well as elder law
12	which we hope everybody else will share to the	12	assistance. We're getting requests from
13	community because the people we are trying to	13	families who had a family member who has passed
14	reach aren't really reading The Star Democrat.	14	away, they might need assistance with
15	The people we are trying to reach need this	15	administering the estate.
16	flyer everywhere.	16	We have folks who have contacted us
17	And we are so happy because we already	17	because a child has been left behind after the
18	have clients in the hopper that will be using	18	parents have passed away due to COVID and they
19	that funding that we will be able to bill you	19	need third party custody. We've had others
20	immediately so that we can get the services out	20	contact us because they've lost employment and
21	to them.	21	they're unable to pay their bills, as we just

5	downtown Easton right now.	5	First, we're providing remote access to
6	So there are challenges that we're all	6	lawyers through our legal staff and our network
7	facing. So this funding is going to go	7	of over 100 volunteer attorneys.
8	directly to help Talbot County residents. So	8	We're also providing legal and financial
9	thank you very much.	9	education to help people to avoid bankruptcy
10	And I do want to give Meredith, who is	10	and to avoid going into mortgage foreclosure.
11	boots on the ground dealing with the clients	11	And then this is, of course, the meat of
12	who we are hoping to help and our staff, is all	12	what we do, which is to provide free legal
13	doing this remotely. And I'm going to let	13	representation for clients who need attorneys
14	Meredith just give you an idea of what that	14	to defend their rights in court.
15	looks like.	15	We have lawyers on staff who specialize in
16	MR. PACK: Sure.	16	family law, consumer debt, housing, elder law,
17	MS. GIRARD: How is that? Can you hear	17	and immigration. And we have a network of over
18	me?	18	100 fiercely dedicated volunteer attorneys who
19	MR. PACK: It's at home. We can hear you	19	specialize in a wide range of civil legal
20	well. It's at home.	20	issues, including foreclosure and employment
21	MS. GIRARD: Okay. First of all, I just	21	issues. And those folks are providing direct

4	consultations. As you probably know, there are	4	Having you here as part of the CARES
5	remote parts of our community where people have	5	Act and Ms. Lane, I don't know whether you
6	a really hard time accessing lots of things,	6	wanted to add anything additional to what's
7	but especially legal services. So for those	7	already been said, you're welcome to do so.
8	clients, we provide justice on wheels. So we	8	But we're not trying to make the landlord
9	go to them. Just last week, we assisted a	9	out to be the enemy here or the bad guy or the 10	member of our community who is in the end	10	bad woman. But we want to make sure that those 11	stages of a terminal illness and helped her	11	citizens who are indigent and who need those
12	execute a financial power of attorney so that	12	services can come to us and through our CARES
13	her family could take care of her affairs.	13	program, get whatever funding that you all
14	So this is the sort of personalized	14	would need to assist them.
15	service that we deliver on a daily basis. And	15	So that's why we're trying to ring this
16	so we're also seeking to work with our local	16	bell. It's not to put them against us. It's
17	businesses and organizations that employ low	17	to make sure that those people who may need
18	wage workers to provide that financial and	18	legal representation can come out of the 19	legal education about how to maintain economic	19	woodwork and out of the closets and come into
20	stability in these difficult times.	20	your offices and know that through the CARES
21	For example, we worked with Habitat for	21	funding that the county is providing, they can

2	consultation for workers who were in need of	2	So this is not a them against us kind of
3	expungements to help them to secure employment	3	thing. I know a lot of landlords right now are
4	and housing.	4	suffering as well because they're not getting
5	So Talbot County's funding through the	5	rent and they have bills to pay, too. So we
6	CARES Act is going to really help us ensure	6	certainly don't want anyone to hear this or
7	that Talbot County residents have the legal	7	hear your presentation and say here they go
8	assistance that they need. They will have	8	again. We're not being antibusiness. We're
9	access to an experienced advocate who will	9	just trying to be pro help.
10	advocate for their rights in court. And these	10	MR. LESHER: I just want to add my thanks
11	investments will have a lasting impact on our	11	that I'm grateful that we have these resources,
12	community.	12	that we have you already in the community
13	And on more than one occasion, clients	13	already doing these things at a time of need
14	have said to me that having legal	14	like this, where the need is just amped up.

If you're going to have a three-night minimum against the community that that STR is in, I think will benefit from a three-night minimum. The person can always stay longer if they choose to, but a three-night minimum at least gives the less frequency of persons loading in and out, back and forth into a least gives the less frequency of persons loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out, back and forth into a loading in and out of the two days loading in and out off the two days loading in and out, back and forth into a loading three inght minimum at loading in and out, back and forth into a loading three inght minimum at loading three		Page 94		Page 96

14	MR. PACK: Thank you. Bill 1462 passes.	14	I have a lot of things going on up here.
15	Next matter before Council is the	15	Shifting papers from one pile to the next.
16	introduction of Council discussion on the	16	It's hard work up here trying to keep this
17	administrative resolution.	17	thing moving.
18	This first resolution, Mr. Kupersmith, I	18	Council, there is one amendment I'm asking
19	believe we're going to table as we made some	19	us to consider tonight. And this was after
20	changes to it after the governor's July 28th	20	some conversation that I had with the health
21	report. So I'm asking for that to be tabled.	21	officer regarding face shields and face
